

HOW WILL I APPLY TODAY'S LESSON?

Sometimes Abraham didn't trust God, and he did what he thought was best instead of following what God knew was best. Did God quit being Abraham's friend? No, God continued to give grace to Abraham because God is good, and He has chosen to give grace to all those who put their faith in Him. When you trust in God, your friendship with God will grow.

A TRUTH TO REMEMBER FROM TODAY'S LESSON

One day while they were on the playground, Grace promised to give Emma a quarter if Emma could climb across the monkey bars. Emma had never climbed the monkey bars, but because they were friends, she trusted that Grace would keep her promise. Emma received her quarter once she made it across the monkey bars.

God wants to be your friend that you can trust, just like Grace was to Emma. When your faith in God grows and you obey Him, you will see that He can be trusted, and your friendship with God will continue to grow.

VERSES TO REMEMBER FROM TODAY'S LESSON

Genesis 15:3-6

- 3 And Abram said, Behold, to me thou hast given no seed: and, lo, one born in my house is mine heir.
- 4 And, behold, the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, This shall not be thine heir; but he that shall come forth out of thine own bowels shall be thine heir.
- 5 And he brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now toward heaven, and tell the stars, if thou be able to number them: and he said unto him, So shall thy seed be.
- 6 And he believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness.
