

HOW WILL I APPLY TODAY'S LESSON?

Happiness doesn't come through what we own, but it comes through being content with what we have. When we are content with what we have, we are full of gratitude to the God who gave it to us, and we are able to keep Him first in our hearts and lives.

A TRUTH TO REMEMBER FROM TODAY'S LESSON

Achan was blessed just like all the other Israelites. He had everything he needed. And everything he had, God had given to him.

But Achan forgot about his blessings, and he wished for things that God had not given him. Actually, what Achan wished for belonged to God. And he took what belonged to God.

God doesn't give us everything we want, because He knows everything we want will not help us to know Him better or to trust Him more. So, instead of wanting what we don't have, God wants us to be content with—to be glad for—what we do have. He wants us to, most especially, be glad that we have Him.

VERSES TO REMEMBER FROM TODAY'S LESSON

Joshua 7:1, 13

- 1 But the children of Israel committed a trespass in the accursed thing: for Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took of the accursed thing: and the anger of the Lord was kindled against the children of Israel.
- 13 Up, sanctify the people, and say, Sanctify yourselves against to morrow: for thus saith the Lord God of Israel, There is an accursed thing in the midst of thee, O Israel: thou canst not stand before thine enemies, until ye take away the accursed thing from among you.

REVIEW FROM TODAY'S LESSON

1. What was the name of the river God had miraculously dried up so the Israelites could cross into the Promised Land?
2. Who was the guilty Israelite who had taken gold, silver, and a robe from Jericho?
3. Did the treasures Achan stole make him happy?
