

APPLYHOW WILL I APPLY TODAY'S LESSON?

Miriam didn't know she was doing something great by being dependable day after day in Egypt. She was just doing her job as she watched her brother baby Moses at the river. But because she was dependable in doing the right thing at the right time, God made what she did great.

When we're dependable like Miriam, we never know what God will do through us! We just have to keep doing the right thing at the right time.

TRUTHA TRUTH TO REMEMBER TODAY'S LESSON

Did you know that Miriam was just about your age when she helped find a Hebrew nurse for her baby brother? Like Miriam, you don't have to wait to be a grownup to be dependable. When your mom asks you to make your bed every morning, can she depend on you to do it? When your dad asks you to take the trash out each night, can he depend on you to do it? Even if it seems like a little thing to us, God can turn what we're dependable in into something big. If Miriam hadn't been dependable by bravely offering to find a Hebrew nurse for the baby, Pharaoh's daughter might have brought the baby home, and her father would have ordered him to be drowned in the Nile River.

When Moses was born, Miriam had no idea that God had a special plan for her baby brother. One day, Moses would lead her and all the Israelites out of their terrible slavery and into the land God had promised to give them. But it all started because Miriam chose to be dependable.

VERSESVERSES TO REMEMBER FROM TODAY'S LESSON*Exodus 2:4-8

- 4 And his sister stood afar off, to wit what would be done to him.
- 5 And the daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash herself at the river; and her maidens walked along by the river's side; and when she saw the ark among the flags, she sent her maid to fetch it.
- 6 And when she had opened it, she saw the child: and, behold, the babe wept. And she had compassion on him, and said, This is one of the Hebrews' children.
- 7 Then said his sister to Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go and call to thee a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for thee?
- 8 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Go. And the maid went and called the child's mother.
