

APPLY*HOW WILL I APPLY TODAY'S LESSON?

The characteristics that gave Jonathan that ability are gifts God freely gives to everyone who seeks Him. They all come through looking to God, believing He is right and His plan is trustworthy. Ask God to forgive you for angry jealousy and to remind you of His great love for you. Ask Him to make you a true friend.

TRUTH*A TRUTH TO REMEMBER TODAY'S LESSON

On your mark... Get set... Go! Matt bolted down the track. Today was the big race he had worked so hard for! Maybe I'll even get first place! he thought as his feet pounded the pavement. But when he crossed the finish line, his best friend Jared beat him by two seconds. At first, Matt was upset. But he knew that wasn't the right attitude—he needed to be happy for Jared. And, just as Jonathan was kind towards David, Matt chose to congratulate his best friend.

Matt could have stormed off the field, but he decided to have a good attitude. Jonathan could have turned his back on David, but he chose to give up his right to be king because he trusted God and loved his friend. When someone gets something that we wanted, are we jealous? Or, like Jonathan and Matt, do we decide to be a true friend? If we have faith and trust in God, believing His plan is best, we will rejoice in whatever God does. We will love our friends with God's love, and we will strengthen our friends in the Lord.

Question #1: Jealousy
 Question #2: David had a heart like his. They both loved and trusted God.
 Question #3: It caused him to try to kill David many times.
 Riddle: Darkness
